IN AND ABOUT THOMPSON

MINING DEALS CLOSED

County Commissioners Complete Work as Board of Equalization—Married and Single Men Play Game of Base Ball—Personal Mention.

David Clark, of Plains, was registered at the Thompson hotel on Tuesday.

Otto Juergs, section foreman at White Pine, was among the visitors at Thompson on Monday.

Frank Bennett returned home Friday night, after a brief but enjoyable visit among friends at Missoula.

Frank Hartman was among the Thompson contingent that took in the circus at Missoula last Friday.

William Cookson, foreman at the saw mill here, attended to some business affairs in Missoula this week.

Joe and Ed Florin and James Adams drove up Thompson river on Wednesday to whip that popular stream for trout.

John Santacon, the popular proprietor of the Gem saloon, attended to some business affairs at Eddy on Wednesday.

John Kirby, the industrious ranch man from the lower end of the Blue Slide country, attended to numerous business affairs in town on Wednesday.

Abe Himoe, the sturdy ranchman, who owns a very pretty home on this side of the river, about opposite Vermilion, was a pleasant visitor in town on Wednesday.

The married men and the single men tried conclusions on the base ball field last Sunday and the contest proved very interesting. The score stood 8 to 8 when the game broke up.

Fred Baumgartner, who is operating some very promising mining claims on Prospect creek, in the vicinity of the Mountain house, attended to some business at the county seat on Tuesday.

Mrs. McGinnis and daughter, Ines, who left Thompson about a year ago, returned again last week and are guests at the home of F. S. Hougland. They expect to remain here for a time at least.

J. H. McKay, postmaster and section foreman for the Northern Pacific at Eddy, was a pleasant visitor at the county seat on Wednesday. He states that the ranchers are getting their hay put up in fine shape.

D. R. Williams and M. R. Lawrence, two young railroad employes from Missoula, arrived here on Tuesday evening and were driven up Thompson river on Wednesday, where they expected to remain a few days and fish to their heart's content.

George Hodgman, who was in town on Wednesday from his claims on Thompson river, reports that the numerous fishing parties have visited the stream this season have all departed with good catches.

Chas. Weber and Henry Florin left on Thursday morning for Paradise, to enjoy an outing at Quinn's hot springs. John Santacon expects to join them next Monday. Scott Barnes intended going but business prevented.

Dr. Peek is busy these days preparing to move into his new store. His new store cases arrived the other day and as soon as a few finishing touches are put on the interior of the building the moving will commence.

Word was received here on Tuesday that the man who held up the Chinese restaurant at Trout Creek on Monday, had been arrested at Missoula and had acknowledged that he was the party wanted. Pending advice from Trout Creek the man is being held at Missoula.

The county commissioners met as a board of equalization again on Monday and completed all the business at one day's session adjourning shortly after noon. The corrected assessment will be made up in a few days. The board will meet again on Aug. 13, to make the levy.

Parties who have visited the Plains valley lately state that the damage done by the hail storm a couple of weeks ago was not at all understimated. They say the spring sown grains are badly parched and will not average much over half a crop. The continued hot weather is held responsible for the loss.

Tom Kern, a timber cruiser from Missoula, accompanied by the following Missoula ladies, Mesdames T. C. Peck, J. C. Morrison and Pearl T. Marshall and Miss Mary Morrison, arrived here on Tuesday evening and enjoyed a very pleasant drive in the country on Wednesday. They all returned to Missoula again on Wednesday's train.

Walter Angel's new house is looming up in the sky these days. During the week he has been assisted by C. H. Doenges, William Lutton, Seymour Hartbut, W. C. Adams and L. W. Herriott and very favorable progress has been made. The frame is all up and the roof is on, while the plastering will be finished at the end of the week they expect to have the roof on.

SHOOTING RESULTS FATALLY.

Pittsburg, July 31.—James Palster is dead, Katherine McClusky aged 23, seriously wounded, and William Mullen wounded in both legs as a result of a mysterious shooting one Dewesburg, Pa., yesterday. The trouble is believed to have followed a quarrel in a camp located on the banks of the Youghiogheny river. Michael Cisio, a fourth member of the party, is missing.

CLUB CHANGES NAME.

New York, July 31.—Justice McLean of the supreme court today signed an order authorizing the democratic club to change its name to that of the National Democratic club. The petition of the club on which the order was issued declared it to be the purpose of the club to extend its operations to all sections of the country and to admit to membership citizens of all the states.

William McNorton, spent several days in Missoula the latter part of last week and Tuesday's Missoulian has an account of a mining deal of considerable importance which was negotiated while he was there. That paper says:

"A mining deal of considerable importance was closed in this city yesterday when several prominent Missoula people acquired a bond for $50,000 on the Nigger Bill, a well known mining property located near Thompson. The parties interested in the deal are M. R. Rutherford, H. E. Chaney, C. A. Barnes, H. T. Wilkinson, M. M. Joyce, E. C. Mulroney and others.

"The Nigger Bill is an old property located on Graves creek, 19 miles west of Thompson, said to contain one of the richest leads of galena ore to be found in Western Montana. The property was located several years ago, but has never been worked to any great extent."

Some weeks ago, Mr. McNorton, on whose ranch the property is located, gave an option on the property to W. B. Ross, and it is reported that he has made the deal with the Missoula people. M. R. Rutherford and G. W. Dougherty arrived here on Wednesday morning and with two miners, Jos Miner and Tom Cowan, and a full equipment to commence work, drove out to the property.

It is their intention to get work started at once and those who are familiar with the property predict that it will develop into a big paying mine. Assays of the ore found near the surface show 20 per cent lead with about five ounces of silver to the ton. It is situated in a most favorable location, close to a good county road and is easy of access.

The Missoula men who are interested in the deal are all well known here and every one wishes them success and hope that their fondest desires may materialize. It is stated that prior to going to Missoula, a Butte party offered Mr. McNorton $18,000 cash for the property, but Mr. McNorton refused the offer.

Another important deal is reported to have occurred in Wallace this week. Parties coming in from Prospect creek bring word that H. W. Kunes, the veteran prospector, has given a bond on his splendid bunch of claims, known as the Daisy group, to Wallace parties. The amount of the bond is said to be $18,000. Mr. Kunes has been trying to make a deal for some time but held out for a cash payment down and refused many flattering offers because the required would not agree to his terms.

The Daisy group is situated just off the Prospect creek trail on Daisy gulch about eleven miles from Thompson. A considerable amount of development work has been done and those who have seen the claims say that they show up in fine shape. They are on the opposite side of the mountain from the Montana Standard and Mr. Kunes has held them for a long period of years. It is also reported that development work will be begun at once by the Wallace people and with greater depth better results are sure to follow. There are several reports current on other properties but nothing of a definite nature can be learned.

The Daly Press, printed at Wallace had the following item about one of the new strikes on the old Gilddon road in its last issue:

"A number of prominent mining men, among them James F. McCarthy of the Interstate, have visited the Hennessy-Burns property, just across the Montana line at the summit of the Bitter Roots and just south of the old Gilddon road, mention of which was first made in The Press two weeks ago. Mr. McCarthy states that at one point they have a most remarkable surface showing of galena. The ledge crops out with a width of fully four feet, all of it being seamed with solid galena of shipping grade.

"They have only made a cut through it at present," said Mr. McCarthy, "and a good deal more work is needed to demonstrate what the find is going to amount to, but it certainly looks very promising. The formation is quartzite of the right sort and the vein appears to cut it in a way that indicates permanency. They have a good, little ledge there is no question about that."

Mining Notes.

Scott Barnes, accompanied by M. R. Rutherford, of Missoula, who is interested in the claims now being developed on Prospect creek, motored to Plains today to visit some mining property owned by Mr. Barnes and others on Swamp creek, near the town of Trout Creek.

William Cameron and Edgar Norship arrived themselves with the necessary flour and bacon and departed for the Thompson river country on Wednesday to spend a couple of weeks prospecting.

Dr. Lide, of Columbus, Ohio, an interested owner of the Montana Standard property on Prospect creek, arrived here on Thursday for a couple of weeks visit at the mine. Mrs. Lisle and daughter, who have been touring Yellowstone National park, arrived here a day ahead of him.

Tom Cowan and Joe Miner, the two miners who came down from Missoula on Wednesday to work on the property recently bonded by Missoula parties, are both familiar with Montana. The former, who until lately has been employed at the Curlew mine at Victor, Mont., was here about 12 years ago and Mr. Miner worked here about the same time. Both gentlemen expressed themselves pleased with the bright outlook.

George Burson, the veteran prospector, who has spent many summers in the hills, went back to his claims on Prospect creek on Wednesday to continue some development work he has in progress.
